ABOUT SACRED HEART SCHOOL

Sacred Heart Catholic School accepted its first students in 1883 and continues to provide K-8th grade education for children from the communities of Brooks, Gervais, Keizer, Mt. Angel, Salem, Silverton, and Woodburn.

Its mission is to form children in knowledge, virtue and the spiritual life in a safe and positive educational environment that they may develop as disciples of Jesus Christ in His Church.

Historically, Sacred Heart/St. Louis parishioners, pastors, and parents have been steadfast supporters of the school. Although Sacred Heart Catholic School has many second-, third-, and fourth- generation families, it also has new families that are drawn from several local parishes, including St. Mary in Mt. Angel, St. Paul in Silverton, and St. Edward in Keizer (Salem) and Woodburn.
